

WORKSHOPS 2019-20

Please register at heaoea.org

Workshops held at OEA/HEA/BEA UniServ Office, 8900 NE Walker Rd, #125, Hillsboro OR 97006

Workshops 4:30-6:00pm unless otherwise indicated. PDUs available where indicated.

Beverages and snacks are provided and there is no cost to members. All OEA Members are welcome at Workshops.

DATE	WORKSHOP
Tuesday January 21, 2020	TSPC Workshop – Teresa Ferrer, OEA Professional Practice Consultant, OEA Center for Great Public Schools Find out the latest in the development of a new licensure redesign for Oregon. Valuable information about all aspects of licensure for K-12 educators and understand complete what your requirements are. Walk away with answers to your specific questions and materials that are comprehensive and user friendly! (PDUs Available) 4:30-6:30
Tuesday January 28, 2020	Trauma & The Brain—Leah Starkovich, Professional Practice Organizer, OEA Center for Great Public Schools How does childhood trauma affect brain development in very young children? Come learn foundations of brain science and how it impacts students in classrooms. You will participate in hands-on simulation to learn how these early experiences impact students throughout their educational career. Learn tools to try with your students and about ongoing opportunities through OEA to grow your skills. (PDUs Available). 4:30-6:30
Thursday, February 6, 2020	De-escalation Strategies for the Classroom—OEA Member Missy Love (Newberg EA), OEA Center for Great Public Schools Learn how to prevent a crisis in your classroom before it even happens. This session, led by members of OEA's Special Ed Task Force, will guide participants through evidence-based practices to de-escalate conflicts and behavior to maintain a positive learning environment. Learn and practice strategies you can apply immediately. (PDUs available) 4:30-6:30
Thursday, February 13, 2020	Disruptive Behavior-Changes in Two Oregon Laws: Restraint & Seclusion and Sexual Misconduct—Adam Arms, OEA Attorney & Erin Whitlock, Professional Practice Consultant/OEA Center for Great Public Schools Come find out changes in two important Oregon laws and how they might impact you. Restraint & Seclusion: Have you ever worked with a student with aggressive behavior or a student who has required restraint/seclusion? Come learn more about how the state law has changed regarding restraint policies. In addition, learn more about the new laws around sexual misconduct and what this might mean. (PDUs available) 4:30-6:30
Tuesday, February 25, 2020	Staff Resiliency and Wellness—OEA Members Stefanie Nally (Newberg EA), Korie Blacker (Astoria EA), and Mona Foss (Newberg EA), OEA Center for Great Public Schools Coping with the effects of others' trauma can be draining and can have lasting negative effects. It is not uncommon for educators who deal with traumatized students to develop their own symptoms of traumatic stress known as secondary trauma or compassion fatigue. In this session, learn about best practices in staff resiliency and wellness to help you and your colleagues maintain your own health and to guard against or heal from the effects of secondary trauma. This session will emphasize the science of resiliency, meaningful self-care and opportunities for staff wellness support. (PDUs available) 4:30-6:30
Wednesday February 26, 2020	De-escalation Strategies for the Classroom—OEA Member Missy Love (Newberg EA), OEA Center for Great Public Schools Learn how to prevent a crisis in your classroom before it even happens. This session, led by members of OEA's Special Ed Task Force, will guide participants through evidence-based practices to de-escalate conflicts and behavior to maintain a positive learning environment. Learn and practice strategies you can apply immediately. (PDUs available) 4:30-6:30
Thursday February 27, 2020	PERS Fundamentals/Mid-Late Career Retirement Planning—Nick Hankerson, CRC Come learn more about PERS and Retirement Planning from a Certified Financial Planner! Topics will include PERS, PERS Reform, IAP, 403b, Investments, Social Security, PERS Retirement paperwork and retirement planning.

Tuesday March 3, 2020	Trauma Informed Practice, Part II—Leah Starkovich, Professional Practice Organizer, OEA Center for Great Public Schools Come learn more about Trauma Informed Practice and Strategies. Session being developed, more details to follow. (PDUs Available) 4:30-6:30
Tuesday March 10, 2020	Student Loan Forgiveness Workshop—Teresa Muench, NEA Member Benefits NEA Research tells us that more of our members are coming into our union with greater loan debt than ever before. This workshop will cover the Federal Loan Forgiveness under which many members may be eligible. The Teacher Loan Forgiveness Program, The Perkins Loan Forgiveness Program and The Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program will be covered. If you are an OEA Member and you have an outstanding student loan or parent plus loan, please attend to learn more.
Tuesday March 31, 2020	PERS Fundamentals/Early-Mid Career Retirement Planning—Nick Hankerson, CRC Come learn more about PERS and investing from a Certified Financial Planner! Topics will include PERS, PERS reform, IAP, 403b, Investment Basics and Retirement Issues.
Thursday April 23, 2020	TSPC Workshop—Teresa Ferrer, OEA Professional Practice Consultant, Center for Great Public Schools Find out the latest in the development of a new licensure redesign for Oregon. Valuable information about all aspects of licensure for K-12 educators and understand completely what your requirements are. Walk away with answers to your specific questions and materials that are comprehensive and user friendly! (PDUs available) 4:30-6:30