DATE	WORKSHOP
Thursday April 23, 2020	TSPC Workshop—Teresa Ferrer, OEA Professional Practice Consultant, Center for Great Public Schools Find out the latest in the development of a new licensure redesign for Oregon. Valuable information about all aspects of licensure for K-12 educators and understand completely what your requirements are. Walk away with answers to your specific questions and materials that are comprehensive and user friendly! (PDUs available) 4:30-6:30
Thursday April 30, 2020	Trauma Informed Practice—Leah Starkovich, Professional Practice Organizer, OEA Center for Great Public Schools Trauma-sensitive schools are grounded in a set of core principles that inform everyday school operations. Schools invested in taking a trauma-sensitive approach understand the interrelated nature of emotional and physical health and academic success and the need to view students holistically and build skills in all areas. During the session, teachers will identify specific strategies that they can use to reduce trauma-related triggers in the classroom environment, as well as ways to lead their schools to become trauma sensitive for all. PDUs Available. 4:30-6:30
Wednesday May 13, 2020	De-escalation Strategies for the Classroom—OEA Member Missy Love (Newberg EA), OEA Center for Great Public Schools Learn how to prevent a crisis in your classroom before it even happens. This session, led by members of OEA's Special Ed Task Force, will guide participants through evidence-based practices to de-escalate conflicts and behavior to maintain a positive learning environment. Learn and practice strategies you can apply immediately. (PDUs available) 4:30-6:30
Thursday May 21, 2020	Student Loan Forgiveness Workshop—Teresa Muench, NEA Member Benefits NEA Research tells us that more of our members are coming into our union with greater loan debt than ever before. This workshop will cover the Federal Loan Forgiveness under which many members may be eligible. The Teacher Loan Forgiveness Program, The Perkins Loan Forgiveness Program and The Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program will be covered. If you are an OEA Member and you have an outstanding student loan or parent plus loan, please attend to learn more.
